Young Europe

Grant program for young artists in the context of

Augenblick mal!

12th German Festival of theatre for young audiences

23rd to 28th April 2013, Berlin

The German children's and young people's theatre centre<sup>1</sup> is pleased to announce a grant program called "Young Europe" in the context of the 12th edition of „Augenblick mal!“ – THE German Festival of theatre for young audiences from April 23rd to 28th, 2013 in Berlin.

The organisers wish to invite emerging artists from different European countries. "Young Europe" offers its participants in the field of theatre for young audiences an opportunity for advanced training and artistic exchange.

The grant includes free entrance to theatre performances at the festival „Augenblick mal!“ and a specially arranged programme of associated activities. The grant also covers board and lodging (in one shared room in a hostel in Berlin). Travel costs must be paid by the invited person or by the institution which selects them.

The grant program "Young Europe" will invite a total of 20 artists from European countries. Applicants must not be older than 26 years (exceptions can be discussed with the organisers) and working knowledge of English is essential. Deadline for application is 1st March 2013 (see the attached application form).

In cooperation with ASSITEJ International and with the support of International Youth Exchange Program of the Federal Republic of Germany<sup>2</sup>.
